

Social Season Planned For Family Community

Election of a new board of governors and the scheduling of an extensive sports, recreational, and social season for the spring and summer have been announced at Scottsdale, R. A. Watt Co.'s condominium family community, at Sepulveda and Avalon Boulevards, Wilmington.

The new resident board of governors that has assumed direction of community affairs, including new improvement projects, is headed by Beatrice Simes, chairman; Lester Rankin, vice chairman; Martha Fitzsimmons, secretary; Marge Milne, assistant secretary; Dick Boncuk, treasurer; and Vern Horton, assistant treasurer.

Members are Jerry Amijo, Bent Anderson, Sherry and

Fiscal Responsibility Theme for GOP Drive

Joe Blatchford, Republican Congressional candidate in the 17th District, today called for greater fiscal responsibility on the part of the federal government rather than finding new sources of funds.

"Six cents of every tax dollar is now going just to pay the interest on our national debt and that is far more than it should be," the Republican hopeful said.

Blatchford, founder and director of ACCION, a private non-profit foundation similar in scope to the federally founded Peace Corps, said the government should look more toward private industry and neighborhood self-help programs as a substitute for ever-expanding fiscal spending.

Soon after the founding of ACCION (Americans for Community Cooperation in Other Nations), Blatchford induced thousands of South American and Venezuelan firms to back his venture and within a year was
